

Dolphins Sweep Bills, 16-3

Can you say "sweep"? Of course you can! The Dolphins jumped onto a 7-0 lead with a 20 yard pass from QB Chad Pennington to TE Anthony Fasano in the first quarter and never looked back.

With the Jets loss today to the 49ers, we are now tied for 1st place with an 8-5 record. The Jets currently hold the tie-breaker over us, but there are still 3 games left. We control our destiny.

My game balls go to:

QB Chad Pennington - 23/29 for 181 yards and 1 TD. I cannot say enough about how Pennington's ability to spread the ball around to the open receiver and manage the game has helped change Miami into a playoff contender.

WR Davone Bess - 9 catches for 74 yards. He's becoming just as valuable to Pennington as Camarillo was as he does not drop passes.

TE Anthony Fasano - the man blocked his rear end off. Every time someone had a nice run you would see Fasano leading the charge.

S Jeremiah Bell - He continues to make big plays when we need them.

K Dan Carpenter - He did miss a kick, but he's been money on field goals. He'd better practice those kick off though.

OLB Joey Porter - He was quiet most of the game, but he was relentless for the entire 60 minutes. On the Bills last drive, he sacked JP Losman and forced a fumble to end the game for them.

Be sure to come by tomorrow morning to read Rich's analysis on the game.
